

Agenda: Towards a competitive and net-zero heavy industry in Europe

April 25, 2019 – The Office, Rue d’Arlon 80, Brussels

15.00-15.30 Doors open & registration

---

15.30-17.00 Report launch: Industrial Transformation 2050 | Pathways to Net-Zero Emissions from EU Heavy Industry

Per Klevnäs, Partner, Material Economics

Panel debate: Pathways towards a competitive net-zero emissions EU heavy industry

- Fulvia Raffaelli, Head of Unit, Clean Technologies and Products, DG Grow, European Commission
- Martin Pei, CTO, SSAB
- Erika Bellmann, Senior Advisor Climate & Energy, WWF Deutschland
- Per Klevnäs, Partner, Material Economics

Welcome and moderation by Philipp Niessen, Innovation & Industry Director, European Climate Foundation

---

17.00-18.30 Report launch: Industrial Transformation 2050 | Towards an Industrial Strategy for a Climate Neutral Europe

Tomas Wyns, Researcher, Institute for European Studies, VUB

Panel debate: Policy options for a new industry climate strategy for Europe

- Malte Bornkamm, Head of Division, German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy
- Manon Dufour, Head of Brussels Office, E3G
- Dr. Christoph Sievering, Lead Energy Strategy & Energy Policy, Covestro
- Tomas Wyns, Researcher, Institute for European Studies, VUB

Opening words and moderation by Sandrine Dixson-Declève, ETC Ambassador for Europe, Energy Transitions Commission

---

18.30-19.30 Event closing followed by reception

