Objective

Statutory objective of the organisation. What does the organisation seek to achieve?

The ECF is established to pursue the following objectives:
a. to promote climate and energy policies pertaining the promotion of greenhouse gas emission reduction; to promote and contribute to the international role of Europe in limiting climate change; to further and promote efficient and safe energy consumption; to sustainably develop clean technologies relating to energy consumption; and to minimize harmful emissions (including ozone gas emissions) in view of climate change;
b. and to educate and raise awareness among the general public regarding the topics described in sub-paragraph "a" above and regarding any related topics, all in the broadest sense.

The ECF shall be a non-profit organisation.

Outline of the policy plan

Please answer the questions below or provide an URL to the policy plan after the last question about the policy plan.

The online policy plan should at least provide answers to the questions about the policy plan asked here.

What are the institution's activities? When are which activities to be carried out? And how do the activities contribute to achieving the institution's objective?

The ECF is dedicated to responding to the global climate crisis by creating a net-zero greenhouse gas emissions society. The ECF harnesses the power of effective philanthropy to support the climate community in shaping public debate and forging bold solutions. Together with hundreds of partner organisations the ECF is at the forefront of a global movement to ensure a liveable planet for future generations.

How does the organisation generate income or revenue?

The ECF aims to realise its objectives by raising funds and accepting donations, and subsequently by organising programmes and re-granting its financial means to achieve its objectives.
The ECF is not an endowed foundation and relies on fundraising to finance its activities. The ECF seeks cash grants from other charitable organisations, including foundations and charity lotteries, and also from individuals.
